The Friedrichstadt-Palast is the #1 theatre in Berlin by a long way. We love first-class entertainment and outstanding service, and actively live diversity and mutual appreciation. Our ensemble comprises around 300 people from more than 25 nations. In addition, we offer 280 children from Berlin aged 7–16 years stage training with us. Every year, over half a million guests experience the finest show entertainment on the world's biggest theatre stage. Our mission: to become Germany's most hospitable theatre.

We are currently seeking a

Musician (m/f/d)
(main instrument: electric guitar; second instrument: acoustic guitar)

to join our 16-piece show band from 01.03.2021.

The position will initially be limited until 31.07.2022. Employment will be full-time (100%) or part-time (50%) following comprehensive training.

Our expectations:

- Completed instrumental studies or comparable professional experience
- Experience and openness to different musical genres and styles
- Ability to work in a team
- General openness to performing on stage
- Experience in ensuite theatre operations (would be an asset)
- Experience with in-ear monitoring (would be an asset)
- Good command of English

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, we have planned the following application procedure:

Send us your application and we'll forward you a download link for the Friedrichstadt-Palast's audition songs. You'll also be asked to introduce yourself in a short video. Should your video audition be successful, you'll be invited to a face-to-face meeting in Berlin.

For more information, please see: www.palast.berlin/backstage/show-band

The application deadline is 31.01.2021; applications will only be accepted via email: bewerbung@palast.berlin

In case of questions, please do not hesitate to contact: Daniel Behrens, Music Director, behrens@palast.berlin

We explicitly welcome applications from people of all skin colours, nationalities, genders, legitimate sexual orientations and faiths as well as from people with and without disabilities.