

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU!

For the eagerly anticipated World Premiere of our 2023 Grand Show, we're seeking expressive personalities and welcome applications from deaf and hearing professional artists of all genders, skin colours, body shapes, nationalities, religions and legal sexual orientations as well as people with and without disabilities.

YOU

Leading role; d/f/m; singer; actor, dancer; playing age: 20–30 years

Role description:

An authentic character from our time in search of belonging and the belief in true love. An inspiring figure in whom melancholy and lightness are closely intertwined. The character cannot hear or speak, and expresses themselves through dance and sign language. A role with a great narrative arc and emotional depth.

Profile:

- Character with very good acting and very good dancing skills
- Playing age: 20–30 years
- Ability or willingness to express themselves on stage in sign language
- Ability to perform up to eight times per week with consistently excellent quality
- No fear of heights

Application documents:

- Curriculum vitae with a current photo (PDF)
- Links to video showreels on YouTube or Vimeo demonstrating the skills sought
- Optional: link to social media account

Please email your full application to castingGS23@palast.berlin

Further information:

- Application deadline: 2 October 2022
- Audition by invitation only. Unfortunately, we are unable to reimburse any expenses for travel to the auditions.
- Auditions: October 2022 in Berlin, further cities currently being planned
- Callback: planned for December 2022
- Contractual period: from June 2023; for the 2023/24 theatre season

For information about the Palast and our 'Respect each other' statement, see:
www.palast.berlin/respect