

The Palast Show Band

One of the largest resident en suite ensembles in the world, the Palast Show Band helps to bring the musical experience of our Grand Shows to life with its signature live sound every night. From orchestral pieces through funk, jazz and big band to modern pop and electronic sounds, their repertoire includes them all. Performing such a broad range of genres with the same energy and precision is a feat that few orchestras can master with such consistency and passion.

Thanks to close coordination, a keen sense of dynamics and the unwavering drive to perfect every musical detail, the Show Band manages to keep every live moment fresh – even after accompanying the same show for many months. To ensure that the almost 2,000 guests experience the optimal sound, the sound system has been extensively modernised and acoustically tuned precisely to the theatre hall and stage.

Regular sound checks and fine-tuning take place during the day to further perfect the live sound. The Show Band meets half an hour before each performance starts to warm up. This all helps to achieve the powerful, vibrant signature sound that makes the Grand Shows at the Palast unmistakable every single evening.
